An aerial photograph of a village with numerous small, single-story houses made of white blocks with grey roofs. The houses are arranged in rows on a dry, dusty ground. In the foreground, two children are standing near some laundry hanging on a line. The background shows a flat landscape under a cloudy sky. A large, semi-transparent text overlay is centered on the image.

An elderly woman with grey hair, wearing a blue dress with a red floral pattern, is crouching and working on a wall. The wall is constructed from vertical bamboo poles with mud plastered between them. She is using a wooden plank to spread the mud. The text "THANK YOU" is overlaid in the center in a large, bold, red font.
