
INFORMATION MANAGEMENT MEETING

13 JANUARY 2024

An aerial photograph of a village with numerous small, single-story houses made of white blocks with grey roofs. The houses are arranged in rows on a dry, dusty ground. In the foreground, two children are standing near some laundry hanging on a line. The background shows a flat landscape under a cloudy sky. A large, semi-transparent text overlay is centered on the image.

An elderly woman with grey hair, wearing a blue dress with red floral patterns, is crouching and working on a wall made of vertical bamboo poles. She is applying a thick layer of brown mud or clay to the wall. The wall is partially covered with this material, and there is a small white rectangular object attached to it. The ground is dirt.
