

GSC Research Studies: Moving Forward

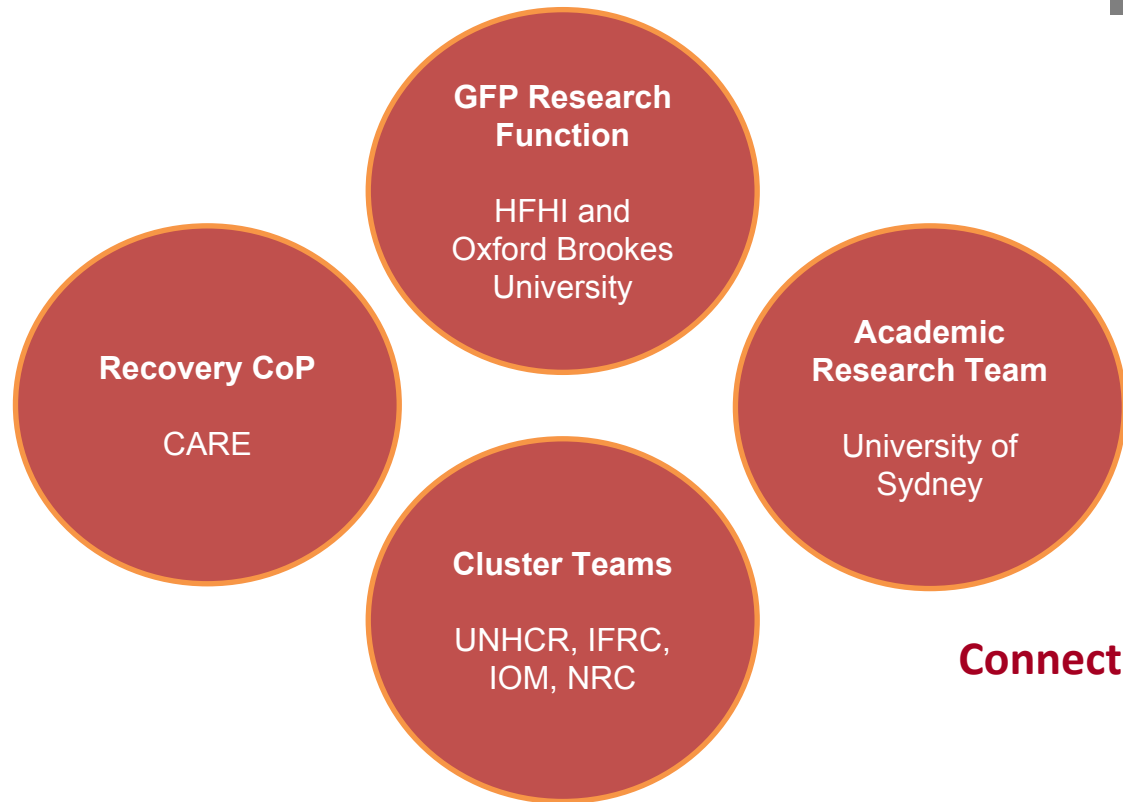

Somali Refugees in Ethiopia, 2013 © Lizzie Babister

Research Question: Moving Forward from Crises

Why are there barriers to connecting the relief and recovery of those who have lost their shelter and settlements in humanitarian crises?

GSC Research Priority Studies: Moving Forward

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8

Connecting Relief and Recovery
Study Team

Session Objectives:

- Share experiences of assisting households to move beyond crisis response.
- Identify barriers to moving beyond crisis response.
- Identify strategies for assisting households to move beyond crisis response.

Contributors sought to understand how to support those households who have lost their shelter and settlements in the longer-term.

Without such evidence Coordinators expressed a lack of leverage to advocate for longer-term support.

Conflict IDP, Yemen 2016 © New Eastern Outlook

The scope of the research will include a range of different geographical contexts, crisis contexts and modalities.

The barriers of concern will be those which prevent long term positive outcomes in support of shelter and settlements.

Reconstruction following Typhoon Goni, 2020 © Jomari Guillermo CRS

Discussion Questions

Were you able to support households to move forward from relief?

Yes

What were the enabling conditions?

No

What were the barriers?